Following on the great success of last year’s inaugural Showcase, we again invite you and your colleagues to:

- Share your UW improvements with others across the University. Improvement examples can feature operations, curriculum/teaching, research, or administration.
- Learn from faculty and staff about new ways to improve work productivity and improve effectiveness in your unit.

WHAT
Poster-showcase of work from across the UW

WHEN
Tuesday, March 8, 1-3 p.m.

WHERE
UW HUB Lyceum

HOW
Poster displays of improvement work, project boards, strategic work, Kanban boards, innovations, business processes, etc.

WHY
To share the scope of UW improvement work and connect individuals in learning from one another.

PARTICIPANTS
Individuals or groups of staff, faculty, or students. Multiple projects from the same unit are welcome.

PROGRAM
No formal program – just circulate, discuss, and learn.

ATTENDEES
The Board of Deans and Chancellors, Provost, President, and Board of Regents are enthusiastic about this event. Some will attend to celebrate your work.

SPONSOR
Organizational Excellence leads and support the implementation of strategic initiatives across the UW and serves as the implementation team for the Transforming Administration Program (TAP), one of the key programs within the Sustainable Academic Business Plan.

POSTER DETAILS
- Tri-fold or easel-mounted posters recommended (but any size/format is acceptable).
- UW Creative Communications (C2) provides poster printing. If you desire, your poster can be mounted as a display tri-fold ($80 for 36x48).

READY TO DISPLAY YOUR WORK?
Please email Lauren Witt (lwitt@uw.edu) by Monday, February 8 to reserve a place for your poster.
