

Ujima E. DonalsonPHILOSOPHY STATEMENT

I believe in the unique and tremendous potential for success that lies within all individuals. It is also my belief that successful employees contribute to the overall success of the team. With proper planning the workplace can be a source of empowerment and engagement. I enjoy working with leaders and teams to create workplace environments where people feel connected, committed, and productive.

In order to shift a workplace culture, leaders must remember that atmosphere is a response to leadership influence, a sustained atmosphere produces a climate, and a sustained climate creates a culture.

MY APPROACH

When consulting, I take a collaborative approach; I seek to partner with clients to develop solutions that will be the most effective for their teams.
