Dear Mom & Dad -

Rather dull today, and I feel bored anyway. Too much party, and have been eating too many goodies!

Right now there is an air strike going on a few miles from here, and everyone is gathering to watch the show. It's an impressive sight. The maphua maphua is rather attractive against the blue sky. Wish I had my camera handy.

The BWO has a new BWO commander.
A humorless man. Everyone has had to trim their sideburns & mustaches.

They ran out of film for the polaroid at Tuan Loi, so won't be able to see any new pix for awhile.

Had the BAR B-One last night.
Pretty good food. I also had steak for lunch - went over and ate at the artillery mess - which always has superior food. Much better than the ship we get - and it's all in the preparation. They both draw the same rations, same basic ingredients - but the artillery cooks prepare their food with professional dedication.

They also have a full-time pastry chef. Actually can not allowed to eat in the artillery mess - but I know the mess Sgt. It helps!
More Later. Things is Fine!

Love
BJ
