DEAR UW ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Discover the pristine glory of the Pacific Northwest—a region of unparalleled natural bounty and spellbinding beauty—where majestic waterfalls plunge down mossy cliffs and powerful rivers flow through deep, awe-inspiring gorges edged by steep canyon walls, rugged high desert and mountains swathed in dense, emerald forests. From Clarkston to Portland, follow Lewis and Clark’s epic passage along the Columbia and Snake Rivers aboard the American Empress, the largest and most elegant riverboat west of the Mississippi.

Your adventure begins with a stay in Spokane, Washington’s second-largest city, graced with beautiful parks, world-class museums, and a historic downtown featuring one of the largest urban waterfalls in the country. Then board the grand American Empress, a modern vessel exuding the charm and lavish features of a 19th-century riverboat, and watch breathtaking, ever-changing scenery glide by as you cruise to quaint riverside towns and memorable historic sites. Visit Clarkston, Washington, where rich Native American culture springs to life at the nearby Nez Perce National Historical Park. Explore Sacajawea State Park, the site of Lewis and Clark’s 1805 campsite, and admire the lovely scenery and small-town charm of The Dalles, the end of the Oregon Trail. In Stevenson, Washington, witness human ingenuity and Mother Nature’s incredible power on display at the Bonneville Dam and Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum. Then visit the oldest city west of the Rockies, Astoria, blending splendid Victorian homes and maritime relics with delightful cafes and shops, before concluding your voyage in Portland, the “City of Roses.”

Join fellow alumni and encounter the Pacific Northwest’s soul-stirring landscapes and storied towns aboard the graceful American Empress. Your seven-night cruise includes fresh regional cuisine, beautifully appointed accommodations and fascinating shore excursions.

Reserve your spot on this remarkable riverboat voyage by June 9, 2015, to receive the one-night pre-cruise hotel stay in Spokane, the $100 onboard credit per stateroom and the 2 category upgrade for select staterooms.

Sincerely,
Pauline Ranieri

AQC'S LAND PACKAGES/SHORE EXCURSIONS: Tours are operated in the various ports of call by AQSC or local tour service companies contracted by the cruise line. They are not under the control of GN. Cancellation penalties may differ from the cruise program related penalties. AQSC may modify the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION PROTECTION: Under Public Law 89-777, the FMC requires vessels having berth or stateroom accommodations for 50 or more passengers and which embark passengers from U.S. ports to maintain acceptable evidence of financial responsibility to indemnify passengers for nonperformance of transportation. AQSC maintains an escrow agreement in an amount sufficient to protect passenger payments for water transportation. This escrow agreement has been reviewed and approved by the Federal Maritime Commission.

NOTICES: Any complaints or claims against GN must be made in writing and received by GN within 90 days after scheduled termination of the trip. Any requests for cancellation under this agreement must be in writing and received by GN within 1 (one) year after scheduled termination of the trip or be forever barred.

The rights and remedies relating to cancellations and major changes prior to departure, made available under this agreement are in addition to any other rights or remedies available under applicable law; however, we offer any refunds under this agreement with the express understanding that the receipt of that refund by you waives all other remedies. While Go Next makes every effort to adhere to the specifics shown in this brochure, all information contained herein is subject to change. Go Next is not responsible or liable for typographical errors, omissions, misprints.

The price is based on tariffs in effect for estimated 2015 prices as of January 1, 2014. Prices increase every year, and it is therefore possible that increases could occur after the printing of this brochure and in advance of your departure.

Welcome to the magnificent Pacific Northwest, where the Columbia and Snake Rivers wind through gentle hills, imposing mountains, dramatic canyons and fertile fields. The land appears today much like it did to Lewis and Clark in 1805—majestic, unspoiled and unimaginably glorious. From the awe-inspiring beauty of the Columbia River Gorge and the cascading majesty of Multnomah Falls to the masterfully crafted wines of Washington’s celebrated wine country, treat yourself to the region’s unforgettable natural wonders and attractions.

The incredible scenery and intriguing history of the Great American West come to life on board the American Empress, your floating boutique hotel. Enjoy casual elegance and sweeping river views aboard the largest and most elegant riverboat in the Pacific Northwest, combining Victorian-inspired décor with frontier flair. Unwind in the Paddlewheel Lounge and sample regional cuisine in the beautifully appointed Astoria Dining Room. And at the end of the day, retreat to the comfort of your fine accommodations.

Discover one of America’s most treasured, bountiful regions on a journey aboard the 223-passenger American Empress, specifically designed to celebrate the centuries-old tradition of exploration in the West. Experience the rich beauty, history and adventure unique to the river boating tradition from the remarkable perspective of the river.

Experience the Pacific Northwest, where diverse landscapes intertwine to form an incredibly gorgeous painting, stirred to life by the cool, gentle breeze. Here nature reveals her unimaginable beauty and range—from surreal, emerald forests and sparkling waterfalls to near-desert bluffs and staggering, vertical canyon walls. Carved by dramatic landslides, volcanic upheavals, and raging floods thousands of years ago, these rugged lands provide some of the most astounding scenery in America. From the decks of the American Empress, discover this renowned region in perfect elegance and ease, as scenes of unspoiled natural glory unfold one by one.

ASTOUNDING SCENERY

SEP 12 SPOKANE, WASHINGTON
Your journey begins with a one-night stay at the Davenport Hotel, a four-star landmark hotel located in the heart of Spokane. Known as the “Capital of the Inland Empire,” Spokane is the vibrant cultural and economic hub of the Inland Northwest. Set along the Spokane River, the thriving downtown district draws visitors with its grand, historic buildings, trendy boutiques and top-notch restaurants.

SEP 13 SPOKANE/CLARKSTON, WASHINGTON
Morning at leisure. Board the graceful American Empress in the afternoon and celebrate the journey ahead with a special evening dinner cruise. Overnight on riverboat in Clarkston.

SEP 14 CLARKSTON, WASHINGTON
Situated in the beautiful Lewis-Clark Valley—the centuries-old home of the Nez Perce Indians—are the sister cities of Lewiston, Idaho and Clarkston, Washington. Founded in the 19th century as a way station for travelers bound for the Idaho goldfields, today Clarkston is famed as the gateway to Hells Canyon, North America’s deepest river gorge.

INCLUDED EXCURSION In the morning, stop at the Nez Perce National Historical Park, which chronicles the indigenous tribe and its relationship with the Corps of Discovery expedition. Then explore more native culture as well as local pioneer history at Lewiston’s Nez Perce County Historical Society and Museum.

SEP 15 RICHLAND, WASHINGTON (SACAJAWEA STATE PARK)
At the confluence of the Snake and Columbia Rivers, this 284-acre park occupies the former site of Ainsworth, a 19th-century railroad town. The land also holds unique history—in 1805, Lewis and Clark and their Shoshone Indian guide camped here during their fabled expedition, Sacajawea State Park features a blend of ponds, marshes, sand dunes, and over 9,000 feet of freshwater shoreline as well as an interpretive center. Nearby, you’ll find Washington’s Red Mountain AVA (American Viticultural Area), a small winegrowing region sprinkled with award-winning wineries. Overnight on riverboat in Richland.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Visit Sacajawea State Park and its interpretive center, featuring Lewis and Clark-themed exhibits and Native American implement displays; the Country Mercantile Store, a working farm and shop offering agricultural demonstrations, gourmet foods and other unique local gifts; and the Hanford Reach Interpretive Center, offering a glimpse into the natural, scientific and cultural heritage of eastern Washington.

SEP 16 RIVER CRUISING/THE DALLES, OREGON
Take in glorious landscapes as you leisurely cruise past the confluence of the Snake and Columbia Rivers. Transit the highest lock in the United States, the John Day Dam. Overnight on riverboat in The Dalles.

SEP 17 THE DALLES, OREGON
This quintessential frontier town rests on a crescent bend of the Columbia River, between Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, and welcomes visitors with its picturesque backdrop of forests, orchards and high desert. Once known as the end of the Oregon Trail, The Dalles occupied a strategic transfer point for Westbound pioneers heading to the Willamette Valley.

PREMIUM CHOICE TOURS will also be offered in each port of call for an additional charge. All port times are approximate. Itinerary, hotel and shore excursions are subject to change.
Life on the American Empress is as unique and enriching as the riverboat tradition itself. Night after night, music fills the majestic Show Lounge, elegantly furnished with crystal chandeliers, glorious period-wallpaper, and comfortable seating, reminiscent of a lumber baron’s estate home. By day, the Riverlorian, your onboard historian, offers lectures and tales of the frontier. The River Grill & Bar and Paddlewheel Lounge are meeting points for old and new friends. And the elaborate Astoria Dining Room, reflecting the Northwest’s rich Russian influence is graced with romantic columns, sparkling light fixtures and exquisite upholstery—the perfect backdrop to sample inspired regional dishes.

E ITINERARY

INCLUDED EXCURSION The hop-on, hop-off motor coach makes stops at the Original Courthouse Museum, known as the first courthouse west of the Rocky Mountains; The Dalles Visitor’s Center; the Fort Dalles Museum and Interpretive Center, which showcases unique military and pioneer remnants, including Oregon Trail wagons; the downtown shopping district; Sunshine Mill Winery, a state-of-the-art boutique winery housed in a 139-year-old abandoned wheat mill; and the beautifully designed Columbia Gorge Discovery Center, offering a variety of unique exhibits as well as walking trails, scenic overlooks and a pond.

SEP 17 STEVENSON, WASHINGTON
Arrive 9pm
Overnight on riverboat in Stevenson.

SEP 18 STEVENSON, WASHINGTON
Depart 5pm
Nestled in the heart of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area, the friendly, laid-back town of Stevenson packs in lovely scenery and layer upon layer of history. Peaceful riverfront parks and downtown delicatessens, pubs, antique stores and art galleries offer a dose of small-town charm while the nearby Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum brings to life 15,000 years of geological glory and compelling regional history.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Traveling by motor coach, stop at the downtown area to explore the boutiques and local specialty shops. Then visit the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum and learn about the incredible geological forces that shaped this astounding region, and discover Native American legends, petroglyphs, and other captivating artifacts and exhibits. Continue to the first dam built on the Columbia River, the Bonneville Dam, a National Historic Landmark and a monument to human ingenuity with its massive turbines and fascinating fish ladders.

SEP 19 ASTORIA, OREGON
Arrive 6am-Depart 6pm
Where the Columbia River meets the Pacific Ocean, you’ll find the oldest city west of the Rockies, Astoria—named for John Jacob Astor, the owner of the American Fur Company. This “Little San Francisco” is bursting with character, from its steep hillsides blanketed in sprawling Victorian homes and weathered Deco-era buildings to its maritime relics and downtown studded with chic cafes and whimsical shops.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Begin with a stop at the Riverwalk, a four-mile walkway overlooking the Columbia River, blanked by shops, cafes and historic canneries. Continue to some of the city’s renowned historic attractions, including the 19th-century George Flavel House and Carriage House Museum, the marvelous Queen Anne-style residence of a prominent local millionaire; the Heritage Museum, illustrating early pioneer life and logging and maritime industries; and the Astoria Column, awarding splendid panoramas from its dramatic perch 600 feet above sea level.

SEP 20 VANCOUVER, WASHINGTON/PORTLAND, OREGON
Arrive 8am
Disembark in Vancouver, Washington and transfer* to Portland for your return flight home. “Transfers to the Portland airport are an additional cost. Flights should be scheduled to depart from Portland after 10:30am. *Transfers to the Portland airport are an additional cost. Flights should be scheduled to depart from Portland after 10:30am.
