Ideally suited to explore smaller harbors that larger ships can’t reach, this 210-guest vessel is perfect for discovering the island’s coastal highlights. Experience the ultimate panorama of Cuba, with interludes in seldom-explored ports, awe-inspiring nature reserves and national parks, six UNESCO World Heritage Sites, and charming colonial towns. And on board your elegant vessel, treat yourself to a world of amenities. Dine on fresh “hot rock” cooking at the Cliff Rock Grille, gain unique insight into Cuban culture from intriguing lectures, mingle with friends and fellow travelers in the cozy, English-style Seascape Tavern, and relax at one of the outdoor lounges—perfect for sipping a glass of wine under the stars or simply taking in stunning views.
APR 23: MIAMI, FLORIDA
From the Port of Miami, embark on your luxury cruise aboard the MS Saint Laurent. This evening, enjoy a special Welcome Reception as well a highly informative talk that highlights the journey ahead.

APR 24: HAVANA, CUBA
Begin the day with a fascinating lecture on the heritage of Havana, Cuba’s effervescent capital. Then head ashore to take in the magnificent sights of Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with timeless Spanish colonial buildings, unique artist studios, and graceful cobbled plazas. Visit the 1920s-era Hotel Ambos Mundos, where Ernest Hemingway resided in Room 511 and began For Whom the Bell Tolls. Following lunch, join a local architecture expert for a panoramic tour of Havana’s architectural gems. After dinner, perhaps enjoy an evening performance at Tropicana, the city’s iconic open-air cabaret, or experience the retro flavor of Café Taberna.

APR 25: HAVANA/VIÑALES, CUBA
This morning, head west into the province of Pinar del Río to the lush Viñales Valley, offering an exquisite portrait of rural Cuban life. Known for producing the island’s best tobacco, the UNESCO-listed Viñales also boasts awe-inspiring scenery, from palm-studded valleys to towering limestone outcrops (known as mogotes) and dramatic caves. Discover the region’s lost-world atmosphere on a riverboat ride through a cave; explore an orchid garden with staff from the University of Pinar del Río; visit a tobacco plantation run by three generations; meet with workers at a tobacco-sorting facility; and stop at a family-owned organic farm to enjoy a freshly prepared lunch and to sample homegrown vegetables.

APR 26: MARÍA LA GORDA/GUANAHACABIBES NATIONAL PARK, CUBA
Sail to Cuba’s forested Península de Guanahacabibes, where the bayside settlement María la Gorda beckons with beautiful coastal vistas. Connect with a local naturalist at Guanahacabibes National Park, the largest of Cuba’s nature reserves. Awash with a striking array of orchids and epiphytes, this UNESCO Biosphere Reserve is a haven for butterflies, hummingbirds, and yellow-headed warbler. Cap off the day with a visit to a Honey House, or Casa de la Miel, for a discussion on beekeeping and local honey production.

APR 27: CIENFUEGOS, CUBA
The only Cuban city founded by French settlers, Cienfuegos, dubbed the “Pearl of the South,” spreads around a lovely natural bay and offers a superb model of 19th-century urban planning in Latin America. Accompanied by a local specialist, set out on a walking tour of the UNESCO-protected city center. Visit a graphic arts workshop where you’ll hear about the transformative power of art in the lives of Cubans. After a performance by the Cienfuegos Choir, you’ll have the opportunity to join the world-renowned choir in song.

Spanish colonial beauty reaches a pinnacle in wonderfully preserved Trinidad. Today, experience a historian-led walking tour of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Mingle with local residents and call on artists in their studios; stroll past beautiful paintings, sculptures, and antiques at the Romantic Museum; browse the Architecture Museum; and learn about traditional ceramic techniques at the Casa del Alfarero, a pottery house founded and operated by the Santander family for generations.

APR 29: SANTIAGO DE CUBA, CUBA
Cradled between the velvety Sierra Maestra mountains and the sparkling Caribbean, Cuba’s second-largest city welcomes visitors with its eye-catching plazas, distinctive Afro-Cuban culture, and vibrant music scene. Meet with locals for special insight into the region’s traditional dances, and explore the history of the Santería religion. Then revel in the spectacular views from the imposing Castillo de San Pedro de la Roca, designated a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

APR 30: ALEJANDRO DE HUMBOLDT NATIONAL PARK/BARACOA, CUBA
This morning, venture ashore for an excursion into Alejandro de Humboldt National Park, touted by UNESCO as “one of the most biologically diverse tropical island sites on earth.” Named after German naturalist-explorer Alexander von Humboldt who first came here in 1801, this biodiverse utopia protects endangered bird species, including Cuban Amazon parrots, hook-billed kites, and ivory-billed woodpeckers. Or, choose to relax among the quaint colonial buildings and peaceful, tree-lined streets of Baracoa, the oldest town in the country.
