Trip to the
Depart for Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Provided for AHI FlexAir passengers. Enjoy a customizable journey with a choice of included excursions. These excursions are detailed in the itinerary. Visit the fascinating Delta Project, a 37-year struggle against the sea. Explore 700-year-old Amsterdam, a beguiling city of canals and museums. Step into The Hague, where you will feel the reverberations of political history, and Delft, birthplace of Vermeer and Contemporary Dutch Art. Experience the canals of Holland and the Old Church, where Vermeer is buried. Go inside the Mauritshuis, home to Rembrandt's "Night Watch" and other treasures. The Hague and the Life and Work of Vermeer: The Royal Delft Porcelain Factory, the De Porceleyne Fles, and the Old Church, where Vermeer is buried. Go inside the Mauritshuis, one of the most important European art museums. For centuries, art enthusiasts and museumgoers have asked one question more than any other about Vermeer's most well-known work: "who is the Pearl Earring?" Controversy reigns when A. A. de Torres, the most recent owner of the Pearl Earring, bequeathed the masterpiece to the museum. The story of these magnificent gardens is as captivating as the flowers themselves. The Keukenhof Gardens preserve as you immerse yourself in the story of these magnificent gardens. The Parks of Giethoorn seem to have materialized out of the mid-1600s. It is easily recognized by the soft-blue turban and, of course, a single visible flower. The Mauritshuis has a rich history, beginning as the kitchen of the 17th-Century Stadtholder Willem III. Its name means "cookhouse," and it was used as a warehouse for goods imported from the East Indies. The museum opened in 1938 and is at leisure in historic Kampen.

Excursion: Amsterdam Canals

Enjoy a scenic bike ride along a vital waterway, explore the Canals Ring Area of Amsterdam, and be sure to snap panoramic tour of the city. The Rijksmuseum, one of Holland's most famous museums and home to Rembrandt's "Night Watch," is a must. In the Van Gogh Museum, located in one of Amsterdam's most important 18th-century mansions, Van Gogh comes to life with his special brand program of "who is the Pearl Earring?" Controversy reigns when A. A. de Torres, the most recent owner of the Pearl Earring, bequeathed the masterpiece to the museum. The story of these magnificent gardens is as captivating as the flowers themselves. The Keukenhof Gardens preserve as you immerse yourself in the story of these magnificent gardens.
