Dear UW Alumni and Friends,

Celebrate the beautiful fall season on a unique voyage aboard the American Queen. Experience the magic of river cruising—a true American pastime—while exploring beautifully preserved monuments and picturesque towns in Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

After a free one-night stay in Chattanooga, board the American Queen, and make your way to Decatur, a city with a rich and colorful history to explore. Learn about the Father of the Blues in Florence; admire stately mansions in Savannah’s historic district; and explore delightful 19th-century architecture and shops and eateries in Paducah. Before concluding your adventure in Clarksville, delve into captivating Civil War history at Dover’s Fort Donelson National Battlefield and National Cemetery.

Your journey includes delicious cuisine, outstanding country and blues performances, and fascinating shore excursions. Reserve your spot by March 21, 2017, to receive the free one-night pre-cruise hotel stay as well as the $600 early booking savings per stateroom.

Sincerely,

Pauline Ranieri
Director, UW Alumni Tours

OCT 22: CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
Your journey begins with a one-night stay at the Chattanooga Marriott Downtown hotel, ideally located near the scenic riverfront and other famous attractions, including the Tennessee Aquarium and Bluff View Art District.

OCT 23: CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE
Depart 5pm
Enjoy the morning at leisure. Embark on your river cruise aboard the graceful American Queen in the afternoon.

OCT 24: SCENIC RIVER CRUISING

OCT 25: DECATUR, ALABAMA
Arrive 8am–Depart 5pm
Nestled in the Tennessee River Valley, the city of Decatur boasts a rich and colorful history. Originally a river crossing for settlers west of the Appalachian Mountains, the town became known as Decatur in 1820. Settlers were drawn to its fertile river-valley soil and relatively easy river access to other cities.
INCLUDED EXCURSION Explore the Carnegie Visual Arts Center; the Old State Bank, built in 1833; the Blue and Gray Museum of North Alabama, which holds one of the largest private collections of Civil War weaponry in the country; and St. John’s Episcopal Church.

OCT 26: FLORENCE, ALABAMA
Arrive 8am–Depart 5pm
The birthplace of W.C. Handy, Florence pays tribute to the Father of the Blues each year with its W.C. Handy Music Festival. Florence is also home to the Rosenbaum House, the only home in Alabama designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.
INCLUDED EXCURSION Step aboard your motor coach for an exciting tour that takes in Pope’s Tavern Museum, one of the oldest structures in Florence; the Kennedy-Douglass Center for the Arts; the childhood home of W.C. Handy; the Rosenbaum House; and the Florence Indian Mound and Museum.

OCT 27: SAVANNAH, TENNESSEE
Arrive 8am–Depart 1pm
Set on the banks of the Tennessee River, Savannah invites visitors to explore its well-preserved heritage and collection of splendid homes and trails. Shiloh National Military Park, site of the Civil War’s largest engagement in the Mississippi Valley, sits just outside of town.
INCLUDED EXCURSION Delve into the fascinating history of the Lower Tennessee River Valley at the Tennessee River Museum; take a scenic drive through the Savannah Historic District, where more than forty opulent homes are on display; explore the Cherry Museum; and visit White Pillars, a historic mansion now home to the town’s mayor, before relaxing at Riverside City Park.

LIFE ON THE WATER
Life on the American Queen is as unique and enriching as the riverboat tradition itself. Night after night, music fills the majestic two-deck-tall Grand Saloon, a stunning replica of the famed Ford’s Theatre. Showboat-style cabaret acts and old-fashioned radio shows add variety and charm to the evening lineup. By day, the Riverlorian, your onboard historian, offers lectures and river lore. The Ladies’ Parlor and the Gentlemen’s Card Room are meeting points for new friends. And the calliope, a steam-powered organ, beckons anyone inclined to play.

E ITINERARY

OCT 28: PADUCAH, KENTUCKY

Arrive 12pm–Depart 5pm

Founded by William Clark following his westward journey with Meriwether Lewis, Paducah bears the name of an Indian chief and the legacy of a Union supply hub on the Tennessee and Ohio Rivers during the Civil War.

INCLUDED EXCURSION

A tour of Paducah brings you to the National Quilt Museum, the Lower Town Arts District, the Lloyd Tilghman House and Civil War Museum, the Paducah Railroad Museum, and the River Discovery Center.

OCT 29: DOVER, TENNESSEE

Arrive 8am–Depart 5pm

Discover the laid-back, small-town charm of Dover, where rich Civil War history comes alive at Fort Donelson National Battlefield and National Cemetery, site of one of the first significant Union victories.

INCLUDED EXCURSION

Traveling by deluxe motor coach, stop at Fort Donelson for a tour of the historic battlefield and cemetery. Gain insight into local history at the Stewart County Historical Museum, the restored Dover Hotel, and the Stewart County Visitor Center.

OCT 30: CLARKSVILLE/NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Arrive 8am

In the morning, disembark in Clarksville and bid farewell to the American Queen. Independently transfer to Nashville for your return flight home.

Note: Return flights should be scheduled to depart after 11am. If you are interested in an optional Premium Choice Tour of Nashville, your return flight should be scheduled to depart after 2pm.

Premium Choice Tours will also be offered in each port of call for an additional charge.

All port times are approximate. Itinerary and shore excursions are subject to change.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

Creating plates inspired by culinary classics of America’s South and utilizing the best of the season’s offerings from stops along the way, an award-winning culinary team lends its expertise to the unique dining experience on the American Queen. Indulge in the elegance of the J.M. White Dining Room, or satisfy your appetite any hour of the day at the Front Porch Café as you sample delectable creations, from pork loin stuffed with andouille sausage to corn fritters and bourbon pecan pie.
