A national historic landmark steeped in Victorian-era charm, Mackinac Island has a no-car policy. Embark on your excursion aboard a horse-drawn carriage and gain insight into the island’s compelling history at Michigan’s oldest building, Fort Mackinac. Behold the imposing stone walls and cannons of this impressive fort, built atop a soaring cliff by British soldiers in 1780.

Explore the cargo’s rich collection of photography, shipwreck artifacts, and fascinating nautical exhibits. Then visit the mighty Soo Locks—one of the world’s largest and busiest locks—enabling ships to travel between Lake Superior and the lower Great Lakes.

AUGUST 24: LITTLE CURRENT, MANITOULIN ISLAND (GEORGIAN BAY)
Delight in a scenic early-morning cruise of Georgian Bay, whose verdant pine-fringed coasts, towering rugged cliffs, and diamond-blue waters have inspired some of Canada’s most celebrated painters. Travel by motor coach to Manitoulin Island, the world’s largest freshwater island. Enjoy commentary highlighting its rich native and nautical history before stopping at the Immaculate Conception Church. A spiritual focal point of the native community, this uniquely designed church brings together the beliefs and customs of both the native Ojibwe culture and the Catholic Church. Following your visit, enjoy an interpretive tour of the Old Mill Heritage Center Museum and Art Gallery, housed in a historic pulp mill. Browse the arts and crafts shop and take part in a Native American smudging ceremony. Back in Little Current, return to the ship or explore the community’s quaint downtown shops, docks, or waterfront parks at your leisure.

Discover the scattered murals displayed around Midland, depicting the town’s rich history. Then, experience early Canadian pioneer life at “Sainte-Marie among the Hurons,” a world-renowned living-museum reconstruction, and explore the floating-ship museum S.S. Keewatin, with staged rooms filled with artifacts from its seven decades of sailing the Great Lakes.
