

University of Washington Alumni Association
2008-09 Legacy Scholarship Application

The University of Washington Alumni Association offers a Legacy Scholarship Program designed to encourage and support children and grandchildren of alumni to continue their family's connection to the University – their UW legacy. Three $2,500 awards will be given to recipients selected on the basis of financial need, scholastic achievement, leadership activities and community service. These are “one-time” awards and are not automatically renewed for the subsequent year, although students are welcome to reapply.

Eligibility requirements:

- Undergraduate juniors or seniors, including transfer students, but not current degree holders
- Will attend the University of Washington as a full-time student in the Fall of 2008
- A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher
- Demonstrated financial need as confirmed by UW Student Financial Services
- Demonstrated campus/community service involvement
- Sponsored by a parent or grandparent who is a University of Washington graduate and a current member of the Alumni Association

Application form must be accompanied by the following:

- A personal letter of not more than one typewritten page describing the impact the University of Washington has had on you and your family
- A list of not more than one typewritten page detailing your campus/community service and leadership activities
- An unofficial transcript of your academic record through Fall Quarter 2008
- A copy of your 2008-09 Student Aid Report from the Department of Education. If this is unavailable, please indicate the date your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was filed.

Candidates may be requested to attend an interview with the UWAA Scholarship Committee.

The application form may be found at UWalum.com.

The application and all other information must be postmarked by February 27, 2009, and mailed or delivered directly to:
