

Remo S. and Sheila A. Galvagno Scholarship

Presented by the UW Alumni Association

The University of Washington Alumni Association offers the Remo S. and Sheila A. Galvagno Scholarship, which is designed to support students who have balanced academic achievement and leadership with a strong work ethic. Awards will be given to recipients selected on the basis of their personal statement, scholastic achievement, leadership activities, community service and financial need, though all factors may not be weighted equally. Awards are full tuition for one academic year and are not automatically renewed for the subsequent year, although students are welcome to reapply.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Undergraduate junior or seniors, including transfer students, but not current degree holders
- Current residents of the state of Washington
- Will attend the University of Washington as a full-time student in Fall Quarter of 2009
- A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher
- Has submitted the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine level of financial need

Application form must be accompanied by the following:

- A personal letter of not more than 1 typewritten page describing how you balance work obligations with campus life and academic priorities.
- A list of not more than 1 typewritten page detailing your campus/community service and leadership activities.
- An unofficial transcript of your academic record through Winter 2009.
- A copy of your 2009-10 Student Aid Report from the Department of Education. If this is unavailable, please indicate the date you filed your FAFSA.

The application and all other information must be postmarked by August 31 and mailed or delivered directly to:
