

Bill Holm Center for the Study of Northwest Coast Art Graduate Fellowships

Purpose

The graduate fellowship program of the Bill Holm Center is intended to provide support for University of Washington graduate students to conduct research and writing leading to either their M.A. thesis or Ph.D. dissertation in the field of Native Art of the Pacific Northwest Coast.

Structure

Graduate Research Assistantships will be awarded to graduate students currently enrolled at the University of Washington for a period of from 1-3 quarters. Students must be enrolled for a minimum of 10 credits during the quarter for which they receive the award (or 2 credits during Summer Quarter). Awards consist of a monthly stipend and a tuition waiver. Application for additional travel funds may be included as needed.

Review Process

Applications for the following academic year are due by April 6, 2009. They will be reviewed by the Bill Holm Center Advisory Board, and awards will be announced by May 15th.

Please mail (or if possible email) the application with your research proposal, resume and transcript, to Bill Holm Center, Burke Museum, Box 353010, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195-3010 (or email to: bholmctr@u.washington.edu).
