

Burke Museum of Natural History and Culture
University of Washington, Box 353010, Seattle, WA 98195-3010, 206-543-6623

Ethnology Department Ethnology Service Fees

Loan Fees All approved loans for off-site exhibit are subject to the administrative fee of $100/object. International loans are subject to an additional fee. In addition, the borrower is responsible for any conservation costs deemed necessary to prepare objects for shipment and exhibition. Prior to Burke Museum approval, any borrower must provide satisfactory evidence of its ability to properly insure, secure, and transport loan items. All loan-related expenses (crating, transportation, insurance, couriers, staff expenses, appraisals, etc.) are the responsibility of the borrowing institution unless other explicit arrangements have been made in advance. Fees must be settled before objects can be released. Borrowers may request loan fee waiver upon special need.

Language Tape Fees Requests for copies of Leon Metcalf language tapes will incur a fee of $10 (subject to possible increase.) The duplication service is performed by the Ethnomusicology Lab/UW and they will bill you directly. Requestors need to complete an intended use form.

Duplicate Photography Fees Requests for duplicate photographs or high resolution digital scans must be submitted in writing to the Burke Museum. The Ethnology Department will submit the photography work order and materials to the Classroom Support Services, (CSS), University of Washington. CSS will complete the photography work, ship the photos or CD, and bill you directly. For CSS fee schedule contact 206-543-9912 or cssphoto@u.washington.edu and note that prices are subject to change. Photos that require production of a copy negative will be charged an additional rate. The Burke Museum will retain the copy negative. The Burke Museum charges a handling fee of $50.00 for slide orders of 25-50 slides. The handling fee for each additional 50 slides is an additional $25.00.

Transparency Rental Fees Rental fees for 4x5 color transparencies are $100 for 3 months.

New Photography Fees Any request for photographic images requiring new photography by museum staff will incur a cost of $50 for a 35mm slide of 1-5 artifacts, and an additional $50 for a 35mm slide of 6-10 artifacts. Cost for more than 10 artifacts will be a combination of the cost ranges. Requests for new photography performed by non-museum staff will incur costs of $20/hour (students) and $35/hour (commercial).

Filming Fees There are costs for filming in the Ethnology Department; the following charges apply:

- Commercial shoots: $3000/8 hour day plus tax; $500 per additional hour
- Education shoots: $300/8 hour day plus tax; $100 per additional hour
- Supervision: $20/hour per attendant (min 4 hours) plus tax; min 1 attendant per 5 crew.

Reproduction Use Fees If you wish to use the photographic material in a publication, exhibit, video, CD, or web-site, you must apply for permission to the Burke Museum. Use fees are charged for scholarly and commercial use of photographic images from the Ethnology Department's collections. Commercial use of artifacts will incur a minimum fee of $150 per BW and $350 per color image from color slides for one-time use, to be negotiated based upon the nature of the commercial use. An additional $100.00 per image is charged for photographs from 4x5 color transparencies. Images photographed from existing publications will incur a minimum fee of $75.00 per BW and $200.00 per color. Use fees for digital productions, including WEB use, are based on the resolution: $200 for low resolution digital scan (72 dpi) and $350 for high resolution digital scan (300dpi) images. The digital scan must be destroyed after use. Fees for multiple delivery methods (print, internet, CD, DVD) and/or 'life of product' will incur a fee of $700. Charges for commercial use of BW historical images will incur a fee of $75 for one-time use. A $50 handling fee is charged for reproduction of photographs in scholarly, museum, or non-profit publications; all other use fees are waived for non-profit agencies with IRS 501(C)(3) status and governmental agencies. Permission to reproduce photographic material is subject to the "Reproduction Policy" set forth by the Museum and the "Rules Governing Recording, Duplication, and Photography" and is contingent upon receipt of all fees and the Reproduction Request form. An additional $50.00 fee will be charged for all rush orders.

All fees are payable prior to photography to the Burke Museum, and are separate from any Classroom Support Services billing. Fees are payable by Visa, MasterCard or check made to the order of the Burke Museum and sent to the attention of Accounts Receivable, Burke Museum. The Burke Museum does not accept wire transfers. Fees are not refundable.