The Carlson Center is launching an exciting new program to immerse undergraduates in paid internship opportunities with non-profits and government agencies in the greater Seattle area. Community-Based Internships will launch spring quarter and continue into the summer.

- 12 hours per week during Spring Quarter
- 15 hours per week during Summer Quarter

APPLICATIONS can be found at uw.edu/Carlson. DUE FEBRUARY 8th

Information sessions will be held in our office at Mary Gates Hall Suite 171 on

Tuesday, January 26th at 5:30-6:30pm and Monday, February 1st at 2-3pm.

MEANINGFUL WORK
Generate valuable partnerships with non-profit organizations serving communities near the Link Light Rail including:
- U District - Capitol Hill
- Downtown
- International District - Beacon Hill
- Mount Baker - Rainier Beach
- SeaTac and Tukwila

SUPPORT AND GUIDANCE
Receive individual professional coaching from mentors engaged in community work.
- Advance career and ethical leadership skills in training workshops.
- Showcase learning and receive professional feedback.

PERSONAL GROWTH
- Expand interests and self-awareness while working with diverse communities through ongoing reflection activities.
- Identify personal and career goals.
- Engage in discussions of equity, diversity, power, and privilege.