The Carlson Center is excited to announce the 2nd year of undergraduate community based internships (UCBI). UCBI provides opportunities for students to participate in paid internship opportunities in the non-profit and public sector in the Seattle and South King county area.

- Internships begin January 3 and conclude June 2, 2017.
- 12 hours per week during Winter and Spring Quarters

APPLICATIONS can be found at uw.edu/Carlson: DUE NOVEMBER 14th

Join us for one of these information sessions!

- Thursday, October 20th at 12:30-1:30pm in MGH 134
- Friday, October 28th at 2:00-3:00pm in MGH 258
- Thursday, November 3rd at 4:30-5:30pm in MGH 171

MEANINGFUL WORK
Generate valuable partnerships with non-profit organizations serving communities, many near the Link Light Rail including:
- U District and Capitol Hill
- Downtown, International District, and Beacon Hill
- Mount Baker to Rainier Beach
- SeaTac and Tukwila

SUPPORT AND GUIDANCE
Receive individual professional coaching from mentors engaged in community work.
- Advance career and ethical leadership skills in training workshops.
- Showcase learning and receive professional feedback.

PERSONAL GROWTH
Expand interests and self-awareness while working with diverse communities through ongoing reflection activities.
- Identify personal and career goals.
- Engage in discussions of equity, diversity, power, and privilege.