The Carlson Center is excited to announce the 3rd year of undergraduate community based internships (UCBI). UCBI provides opportunities for students to participate in paid internship opportunities in the non-profit and public sector in the Seattle and South King county area.

- Internships begin January 3 and conclude June 1, 2018.
- 12 hours per week during Winter and Spring Quarters

Visit uw.edu/Carlson to apply: DUE OCTOBER 23rd

Join us for one of these information sessions!

- Monday, October 9th
  4:00-5:00pm in MGH 258

- Tuesday, October 10th
  12:30-1:30 pm in MGH 134

- Thursday, October 12th
  5:00-6:00pm in MGH 258

MEANINGFUL WORK

Generate valuable partnerships with non-profit organizations serving communities, many near the Link Light Rail including:

- North Seattle, U District, Capitol Hill, Downtown, International District, Beacon Hill, Rainier Valley, SeaTac, and Tukwila

SUPPORT AND GUIDANCE

Receive individual professional coaching from mentors engaged in community work.

- Advance career and leadership skills in training workshops.
- Showcase learning and receive professional feedback.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Expand interests and self-awareness while working with diverse communities through ongoing reflection activities.

- Identify personal and career goals.
- Engage in discussions of equity, diversity, power, and privilege.

Questions? Contact us! serve@uw.edu 206-543-4282