The University of Washington has established an institutional membership with the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity!

Please direct inquiries to Norma Rodriguez, Director Office for Faculty Advancement normar@uw.edu

The NCFDD provides a 12-month external mentoring community program designed to support the success of University of Washington faculty, post-docs, and graduate students. The NCFDD teaches concrete, empirically-tested strategies for increasing productivity through, for example, online training workshops facilitated by faculty development experts, monthly mentor matches, and the “Monday Motivator” weekly newsletter.

Activating your University of Washington membership account!

1. Go to www.facultydiversity.org
2. Select “Become a Member” tab and choose “Individual Membership.”
3. On that page select “Join Now.”
4. On “Select Your Member Type” page, select “Institutional Sub-Account.”
5. On the “Select a Username” page use your University of Washington e-mail address in the Username box.
6. Complete the registration process.
7. You will receive a welcome e-mail within 24 business hours confirming your account activation.

Benefits include:
- Intensive online training & mentorship
- Tips and techniques on securing external funding for your research
- Professional development online workshops
- Access to Multi-Week Courses each term
- Access to moderated monthly writing challenges

About the NCFDD

Please direct inquiries to Norma Rodriguez, Director Office for Faculty Advancement normar@uw.edu

Technical questions regarding enrollment? Please contact Ashley Oliver, Coordinator Ashley@FacultyDiversity.org 313-347-8485 ext. 3