Dr. Nina Parker-Cohen To Lead Learning Disabilities Presentation May 27

SEATTLE – Dr. Nina Parker-Cohen, a licensed psychologist and learning disability specialist, will lead a presentation on learning disabilities and their intersectionality with higher education on Thursday, May 27, from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. in Mary Gates Hall, Room 074.

The event, sponsored by The ASUW Student Disability Commission and the Disability Resources for Students Office, will also feature a student panel with learning disabilities.