Heritage University

Founded in 1982, Heritage University is a non-profit, independent, non-denominational, accredited institution of higher education offering undergraduate and graduate education. It’s mission is to provide quality, accessible higher education to multicultural populations which have been educationally isolated.

Fast Facts: (fall 2011)
Diversity - 51% Hispanic/Latino, 27% white, 11% American Indian or Alaska Native
Enrollment - 887 undergraduate and 328 graduate students. 81% of undergraduates attend full time
  78% Female, 60% age 25 and over
Financial Aid- 94% of undergraduates received grant or scholarship aid, 74% received Pell Grants
Degrees - 20 Associates degrees, 104 Bachelors degrees, 124 Masters degrees
Faculty- 61 full time and 115 part-time instructional faculty. Student/faculty ratio is 9:1

UW connections:
Faculty and staff from the UW and Heritage have joined efforts on a variety of curricular, research and student-outreach programs during the last decade.