The Faculty Council, based on such discussion, will forward recommended changes to the Dean in a formal letter copied to the Associate Deans, the Department Chairs, and the Director of Clinical Operations.

h. If requested by a faculty member, act as a salary review committee for conflict resolution in cases of individual faculty salary disputes prior to the faculty member exercising his/her right to initiate adjudication.

Section 2: The Faculty Council shall provide for:

a. oversight, coordination, and support of the activities of School of Dentistry standing and administrative committees,

b. election of the chair and members of the Faculty Council and the chairs of the standing committees.

Section 3: Membership:

a. The Dental Faculty Council shall consist of six elected dental faculty, an ex-officio member of the graduate faculty (if not already serving as an elected member), and the Dean as an ex-officio non-voting member.

b. The period of service shall be for two years. An elected member may be elected to no more than two, consecutive two-year terms. After serving two, two-year terms, a faculty member shall not be eligible for election until two years have passed following his/her last term.

c. A Chair and a Vice-Chair shall be elected by the Council from its membership each year at the first meeting at the beginning of fall quarter.

d. No more than one faculty member with a primary appointment in a single department may serve on the Council concurrently.

Section 4: Election of Faculty Council:

a. Voting faculty members shall nominate candidates for election. Nominations may also be made from the floor during a Faculty Meeting as described in Article VIII, Section 3.
b. At least two candidates must be nominated for each vacancy to be filled.
c. Candidates who receive the most votes (plurality) of those cast are elected. If a tie occurs, a special run-off election will be held.
d. Three Council members shall be elected each year.

Section 5: Meeting of the Faculty Council:
a. The Dental Faculty Council shall meet at least once in the Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters.
b. The Dean and/or Chair of the Faculty Council may call for a meeting.

Section 6: A quorum for the Faculty Council meeting shall be a majority of the voting members of the Faculty Council.

Section 7: Agenda for the Faculty Council meeting:
a. Agenda items for the Faculty Council meeting may be submitted to the Chair by any voting faculty member, by the Dean, or by any member of the Council.
b. Agenda items must be considered within a reasonable period of time, which will generally be within 2-3 weeks.

Article V: Meeting of the Dental Faculty

Section 1: The Dean and/or the Chair of the Faculty Council may call for a meeting of the Dental Faculty. Special meetings shall be held when called by the Faculty Council, when requested by the Dean, or when requested in writing by twenty percent of the voting membership of the School faculty. There shall be at least two regular meetings of the Dental Faculty each academic year. Meeting dates will not be changed unless there is a major emergency, with information to the faculty regarding cause for change.

Section 2: The Dean presides at the meeting of School Faculty. The Faculty Council shall determine the order of business.

Section 3: Notice of the time, place, and agenda of regular Dental Faculty meetings shall be given at least fourteen days in advance of the meeting. Notice of time, place, and agenda of special Dental Faculty meetings called either by the Dean or the Faculty Council shall be given at least seven days in advance of the meeting except in an emergency.

Section 4: The agenda shall be developed by the Faculty Council with input from individual faculty members, departments, divisions, councils, committees, task forces, and the Dean. Section 1: A quorum for voting at any meeting of the School of Dentistry faculty shall consist of at least half the voting members of the faculty, with all departments represented.
Article VII: Faculty Voting

Section 1: A proposed action of the School of Dentistry faculty, which was distributed as an agenda item at least two weeks prior to a faculty meeting under the authority of UW Policy Directory, Faculty Code Sections 23-43 and 23-44, is effective if passed by a quorum majority of its voting members present at a meeting, without need for a mail ballot. For voting in a meeting, voting may occur orally, by show of hands, or by ballot.

Section 2: Legislative action may be taken by the faculty as prescribed in Article VII, Section 1, by mail ballot if fewer than half of the faculty members eligible to vote are present at a meeting or a motion requesting a mail ballot is passed by a majority of faculty attending a faculty meeting.

Section 3: Mail ballots:
   a. Ballots will be prepared by the Chair of the Faculty Council and mailed to all eligible voting members of the faculty by interdepartmental mail. Ballots shall clearly define issues or specify nominees to be voted upon and must be returned within fourteen calendar days after mailing.
   b. An envelope with a pre-printed return address will be sent with each ballot. In order for a ballot to be counted, the envelope must be signed by the voter. Ballots without the voter's signature shall not be counted.
   c. All ballots received by the Chair of the Faculty Council shall be verified against a list of eligible voting faculty and counted by a procedure that will ensure the secrecy of the ballot.
   d. The vote shall become effective if a majority of at least half of the members entitled to vote cast ballots. (UW Policy Directory, Faculty Code Section 23-46.B).

Article VIII:
Nominations and Elections for Faculty Council & Standing Committee(s)

Section 1: Voting faculty members shall nominate candidates for the Faculty Council as defined in Article IV, Section 4. At least two candidates shall be nominated for each vacancy.

Section 2: The Faculty Council shall make nominations for the Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure (APT) Committee. At least two eligible candidates shall be nominated for each vacancy.

Section 3: Nominations of eligible candidates may be made by any voting faculty. Consent of the nominee must be obtained prior to nomination.

Section 4: An alphabetically arranged ballot of nominees shall be distributed to voting members of the faculty by interdepartmental mail. Ballots will be sent with official return envelopes. The completed ballot must be placed into the envelope provided, the envelope signed, and the ballot received by the Chair of the Faculty Council no later than fourteen calendar days after mailing of the ballots.

Section 5: Candidates who receive the most votes (plurality) of those cast are elected to the available positions. At least 50% of eligible faculty must vote.
   a. In the case of a tie for an available position, a second election shall be conducted. In such cases, the tied candidates shall be listed on a second official ballot and the full election procedure repeated. Twice the number of candidates as vacancies will be listed alphabetically on the ballots.

Section 6: Elected faculty shall assume office on the first day of the Fall Quarter following the election.

Article IX: Standing Committees

Standing Committees report to Faculty Council and shall be advisory to the Dean. The responsibilities and charges to the Standing Committee(s) shall be made by Faculty Council.

Section 1: The Standing Committee(s) shall be:
a. Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure Committee;
b. Other standing committees as established by vote of the faculty Section 2: Committee Elections: Members of the Standing Committee(s) shall be elected in the manner described in Article VIII, Sections 2 and 3.

c. No more than two faculty members with a primary appointment in a single department may serve on the same committee concurrently.
d. Standing Committees shall elect their chairs at their first meeting each year at the beginning of fall quarter and report the results to the Dean and the Faculty Council.
e. No faculty person may serve on more than three committees concurrently.
f. Standing Committees may have ex-officio members and may appoint consultants when appropriate. Ex-officio members and consultants will be non-voting members of the committee.

Section 4: The Standing Committee(s) shall submit written annual reports to the Dean and Faculty Council that shall be distributed in advance to faculty for potential discussion at the Fall Faculty Meeting.

Section 5: Committee Composition and Responsibilities
a. Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure (APT) Committee
   1. Composition:
      i. The APT Committee shall consist of seven members. Committee members must be assistant professor or above, and there shall be no more than one assistant professor and not more than two associate professors on the committee. Any member below the rank of full professor shall not participate in the annual promotion session if s/he is being considered for promotion at that time.
      ii. A member shall serve for a period of three years.
      iii. Members shall be nominated by the Faculty Council and elected by the faculty in the manner defined in Article VIII, Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5.
      iv. The committee shall elect the chair at the first meeting each year at the beginning of fall quarter and the results shall be reported to the Dean and the Faculty Council. The Chair must be at the rank of full professor.
   2. Responsibilities:
      i. To establish guidelines governing appointment, promotion, and tenure consistent with the University Faculty Code.
      ii. To review candidates and advise the Dean regarding proposed appointments, promotions, and the award of tenure.

b. Other Standing Committees: The composition and responsibilities of other Standing Committees shall be determined when they are established by the faculty.

Article X: Vacancy In Office

Section 1: Definition. A vacancy in elected committee membership can occur through such processes as resignation, termination of employment, loss of voting privileges (e.g., when of leave), or repeated failure to attend meetings of any committee without advance notification.

Section 2: Filling Vacancies. If a vacancy should occur during the term of any office, the Faculty Council shall be empowered either to appoint a replacement to complete the unexpired term or to provide for an election to a new term of office for that position.
Article XI: Parliamentary Authority

Section 1: The rules contained in Roberts Rules of Order shall be the parliamentary authority. The rules contained in School of Dentistry, Code of Organization of the Faculty shall govern the faculty in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the UW Policy Directory, Faculty Code and policies of this University.

Article XII: Amendments

Section 1: These bylaws may be amended in the following manner:

a. Proposed amendments shall be presented in writing to the Dean and the School of Dentistry Faculty Council and shall be read at a meeting of the Dental Faculty Council. Proposed amendments may be presented by standing and administrative committees. Proposed amendments from the faculty at large must be submitted with signatures of at least five voting members of the Dental Faculty.

b. The proposed amendment shall be distributed seven days prior to and shall not be acted upon until having been discussed during a meeting of the Dental Faculty.

c. The voting procedure set forth in Article VII, Section 3 of this Code shall be followed.

d. An amendment of these bylaws shall be effective upon approval by a majority of the voting members of the faculty.

Article XIII: Delegation of Powers to Departmental Faculties

Section 1: The faculty of the School of Dentistry delegates to the faculties of its several departments and committees the following powers and duties (UW Policy Directory, Faculty Code Section 23-43,C):
