Dear President McCormick:

In accordance with the rules, the faculty has approved the Faculty Code amendments in Class A Bulletin No. 107 regarding Volume Two, Part II, Chapter 24, Section 24-57.C & D, Regular Faculty Conferences.

The results of the election submitted to the faculty for vote on 21 May 2002 are:

- Total ballots mailed out: 3450
- Total ballots returned: 641
- Percent of faculty who voted: 18.58%
- Percentage of "yes" votes: 70.83% (454)
- Percentage of "no" votes: 24.80% (159)
- Abstentions: 4.37% (28)

(The above percentage figures are based on ballots returned.)

Attached is Professor Bradley Holt's certification that the faculty has voted to approve the changes as proposed in Class "A" Bulletin No. 107. Before the University Handbook can be revised, we need your approval. According to the Faculty Code, you have 14 days to respond. We look forward to hearing from you by 1 July 2002.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Lea B. Vaughn
Secretary of the Faculty

<td>Section 24-57. Procedural Safeguards for Promotion, Merit-Based Salary, and Tenure Considerations&lt;br&gt;All procedures regarding promotion, merit-based salary, and tenure considerations outlined in the relevant sections of the Faculty Code must be followed. Open communication among faculty, and between faculty and administration, must be maintained in order to insure informed decision making, to protect the rights of the individual and to aid the faculty in the development of their professional and scholarly careers.&lt;br&gt;&lt;br&gt;Each faculty member must be allowed to pursue those areas of inquiry which are of personal scholarly interest; at the same time, however, each faculty member must be informed of the expectations a department holds for him or her and of the manner in which his or her activities contribute to the current and future goals of the department, school, college, and University. In order to enable the faculty member to establish priorities in the overall effort of professional career development and to fulfill the University's obligations of fair appraisal and continual monitoring of faculty development, the following procedural safeguards shall be adopted in each department, school, or college.&lt;br&gt;&lt;br&gt;A.
