The Climbing Club at UW is a registered student organization focusing on hiking, mountaineering, rock and ice climbing, scrambling, snowshoeing and backcountry skiing. The club also has a competitive climbing team that participates in regional indoor climbing competitions. The club’s main purpose is to provide members with the opportunities to meet others who share the same interests and to provide resources for planning trips to the mountains. Members have all different levels of experience and reasons for joining the club. Beginners are always encouraged to join!

CLUB ANNUAL DUES
The annual dues are $25, which cover Sept. 24, 2014 – Sept. 25, 2015. (Dues are subject to change)

CLUB MEMBERSHIP
Memberships are purchased at Info Desk at the HUB on the 1st Floor or at Club meetings and office hours (see club website).

UW extension, branch campus students, students of the ASUW experimental college, UW alumni, and the general public are not eligible to participate in the Club Sports program.

MEMBERSHIP WAIVER CARD
All participants must complete a membership/waiver card prior to club participation. Membership/waiver cards are available from the club president at practice or at the Programs Office, located on the 3rd floor of the IMA.

EQUIPMENT
- Basic mountaineering equipment including tents, snowshoes, ice axes and crampons are available for weeklong check-out from the IMA.
- Specialized mountaineering equipment including avalanche beacons, probes, and ice tools are available for weeklong check-out from the club’s office in Condon Hall.
- See the club website for a full listing of equipment at both locations and check-out times.

The Climbing Club is not affiliated with the IMA Climbing Wall. You must pay all established fees.
