The Climbing Club at UW is a registered student organization focusing on hiking, mountaineering, rock and ice climbing, scrambling, snowshoeing and backcountry skiing. The club also has a competitive climbing team that participates in regional indoor climbing competitions. The club's main purpose is to provide members with the opportunities to meet others who share the same interests and to provide resources for planning trips to the mountains. Members have all different levels of experience and reasons for joining the club. Beginners are always encouraged to join!

CLUB ANNUAL DUES
The annual dues are $25, which cover Sept. 28, 2016 – Sept. 25, 2017. (Dues are subject to change)
