You are invited to an informational forum on the

REAL Hope Act

a law to enable undocumented students to apply for college financial aid

---

The REAL Hope Act, SB 6523, was signed into law by

Washington Governor Jay Inslee on February 26, 2014.

---

Date: Tuesday, March 18, 2014

Time: 4:00 – 6:00 pm

Where: Alder Auditorium, University of Washington, Seattle

1310 NE 40th Street (enter on NE 40th between University Way and Brooklyn Ave. NE)

Purpose: Help students, educators, and administrators understand the process for undocumented students to apply for state-funded financial aid

- Who qualifies?
- When can students apply?
- Is funding guaranteed?
- When and where can funds be used?
- ... and more

Networking Reception: immediately following forum at Samuel E. Kelly Cultural Center

Sponsors: University of Washington — Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity, Office of Student Financial Aid; Latino/a Educational Achievement Project (LEAP); Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC)

Staff from WSAC, LEAP, and UW Student Financial Aid will present information and new resources dedicated to helping students and educators understand how the new law will be implemented.

For information: [LEAP@seamarchc.org; partida@uw.edu](mailto:LEAP@seamarchc.org; partida@uw.edu)