

Leadership in challenging times

Richard R. Johnson, onetime Chair, Department of History

- Context: the position and perspective of the academic unit and its leadership
- Working with the administration: the 1990s experience
- Within the department:
 - Sustaining a mission, directing resources
 - Consultation and collective decision
 - Sharing responsibilities, especially teaching
 - Working with other units and the community
 - Communicating success
 - Positioning for the future