

KEY FACTS - FY10

- NUMBER OF STUDENTS: over 1,200 enrolled
  - 200 BS/BA per year
  - 100 MS per year
  - 50 PhD per year

- NUMBER OF FACULTY > 200
- GRANTS & CONTRACTS (FY08) >$80 million (cf. Arts & Sciences @$81M, Engineering @$83M)
- ENDOWMENT VALUE (as of 10/1/09) $58.5 MILLION

- UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES/CERTIFICATES OFFERED:
  - √ B.A. Environmental Studies
  - √ B.S. Aquatic & Fishery Sciences
  - √ B.S. Atmospheric Sciences
  - √ B.S. Earth & Space Sciences
  - √ B.S. Forest Resources (Env. Science & Resource Mgmt.)
  - √ B.S. Forest Resources (Paper Science & Engineering)
  - √ B.S. Oceanography
  - √ Certificate in Restoration Ecology

- GRADUATE DEGREES/CERTIFICATES OFFERED:
  - √ Master of Marine Affairs, Master of Environmental Horticulture, Master of Forest Resources (Forest Management)
  - √ M.S. and PhD degrees in Aquatic and Fishery Sciences, Atmospheric Sciences, Earth & Space Sciences, Forest Resources,* and Oceanography
  - √ Certificates in Environmental Management, Climate Science, and Interdisciplinary and Policy Dimensions of Earth Science**

* Graduate students in Forest Resources may also pursue joint MPA or Peace Corps Masters international degrees

** Open only to UW students enrolled in other graduate programs