Nature of Business or Organization:

We're J&D's Foods, and we think that everything should taste like bacon. Which is why we started with a product called Bacon Salt, a zero calorie, zero fat, vegetarian and kosher seasoning that makes everything taste like bacon. We recently launched a product called Baconnaise, which is The Ultimate Bacon Flavored Spread. It's an exciting time here at J&D's Foods as our products are now in over 9,000 grocery stores around the country. We've been riding a wave of great PR, with product mentions or appearances on Good Morning America, Maxim, The Wall St. Journal, Fox News, NPR and many others. Locally, you may have seen or heard us on Evening Magazine, KING 5 News, The Men's Room on KISW, KOMO, KIRO, KJR, KUOW and more. We offer a great opportunity for a part-time student to work on the ground floor of a fast-growing startup operation in the consumer packaged goods (CPG) industry that typically does well in challenging economic times.

Duties and Responsibilities:

We're currently looking for a part-time student to help support our E-Commerce and Marketing Operations. This will include processing online orders, responding to fun customer email inquiries (like the guy who recently got the Bacon Salt logo tattooed on his and his girlfriend's arms), and helping support our troops through an initiative called Operation Bacon Salt, which provides free Bacon Salt to troops that are serving in bacon-less countries like Iraq and Afghanistan. There may also be various marketing events that we may need assistance with.
