

Service Employee Opportunity Scholarship

The Service Employee Opportunity Scholarship recognizes the contributions of service employees to the well-being of the University of Washington. It offers UW scholarships to service employees and their family members.

You can participate in this scholarship in one of two ways:

1. If you are a food service, laundry, or custodial employee with at least five years of service to any UW location, you or a member of your family can apply for this scholarship for use at all UW campuses. The deadline for application is June 1, 2012 and is made through the Office of Student Financial Aid. The application form is available at http://finaid.uw.edu/seo\_scholapp.pdf
2. You may contribute to this scholarship fund. Contributions can be of any amount and given one time or over time. The number of scholarships available will increase as the amount of contributions to the fund increases. Contributions can be made at <http://uwfoundation.org/service>

Job categories included in eligibility:

Food Service	Custodians	Laundry
Cook	Custodian	Washroom Equipment Operator 1
Cook Lead	Custodian Lead	Laundry Operator 1
Baker	Maintenance Custodian 1	Laundry Operator 2
Snack Bar Lead	Custodian Supervisor 1	Seamstress
Food Service Worker	Custodian Supervisor 2
Food Service Worker Lead	Carpet Cleaner
Food Service Porter
Dietary Unit Aide
Dietary Unit Clerk

Definition of Family Member:

Family member means the employee's spouse or same or opposite sex domestic partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, sister, or brother. Family member also means individuals in the following relationships with the employee's spouse or domestic partner: child, parent, or grandparent. It also includes those persons in a "step" relationship.

This scholarship was established by Helen Remick, retired Assistant Provost for Equal Opportunity, and Jeraldine (Jerri) McCray, retired Associate Vice President for Facilities Services.