Nature of Organization

The Burke Museum creates a better understanding of the world and our place in it. The museum is responsible for Washington State collections of natural and cultural heritage and sharing the knowledge that makes them meaningful.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Development Assistant is an integral part of the development and membership team at the Burke. Main duties include gift processing, membership fulfillment, data entry, list management, mailing projects, copying, filing, and other general office tasks. Additionally, the Development Assistant will help the department with the planning, promotion, and execution of special events at the museum, including board and committee meetings, members exhibit previews, family day programs, and other duties as assigned.

Minimum Qualifications

The ideal candidate will be highly motivated, personable and detail-oriented. Must be available evenings and weekends. Must be able to interact professionally with museum donors, members and staff. Strong communication skills are essential. At least one year of previous office experience and working knowledge of Microsoft Office products are required. Past database and telephone experience are preferred.

Educational Benefits

This is an exciting opportunity to work with a growing high-energy development and membership team and get first-hand experience in museum membership, fundraising, board development and management, special event planning, and general non-profit administration. This is an ideal setting in which to develop time management, office, and database skills. The position also provides immediate access to the Burke Museum and its vast educational resources.

How to Apply

Please email cover letter and resume to Phoebe Keleman, Membership Coordinator, at pkeleman@uw.edu.
