Nature of Organization

InterIm CDA is a community development organization that promotes, advocates, and revitalizes the International District for the benefit of low and moderate-income residents and business owners. InterIm CDA manages the Danny Woo Community Garden

Duties and Responsibilities

The intern is responsible for implementing the design and overseeing the construction of a retaining wall, a handicap accessible ramp, and a flight of stairs for the garden. The position will involve: participating in community meetings; applying for needed permits; purchasing construction materials; supervising work crews; constructing elements of the structures

Minimum Qualifications

- Carpentry and landscaping experience
- Ability to work independently
- Creativity and imagination
- Leadership experience

Educational Benefits

This internship is a great hands-on experience where conceptual theories can be applied to physical reality. Solutions for this urban garden often involve ideas that are unconventional and "outside the box" and creativity is the best tool in the box. Moreover, this is a great opportunity to work in sustainable urban agriculture
