

Work Study Job Description

Job Title	Laboratory work in Drug development
Organization Name	Infectious Disease Research Institute
Job Location	Eastlake
Address	1616 Eastlake Ave E Seattle WA 98102
Pay Rate	$15.00 - $15.00
Employment Period	Academic Year
Hours Per Week	19 hrs/wk
Contact Supervisor	Diana Craig
Phone Number
Email Address	diana.craig@idri.org
Website	http://idri.org

Nature of Organization

The Infectious Disease Research Institute (IDRI) is a non-profit organization based in Seattle, Washington and is committed to developing drugs, vaccines and diagnostic tools for use in the developing world

Duties and Responsibilities

Learn how to work safely in a microbiology, chemistry and molecular biology laboratory setting
 Learn how to follow S.O.P. (Standard Operating Procedures)
 Create and enter data into a Lab notebook
 Track inventory
 Make media and solutions for experiments
 Provide general lab support to scientists

Minimum Qualifications

Current student enrolled in an accredited college
 Interested in learning good lab techniques
 Interested in pursuing a role in global health

 Willingness to learn new things and a can do attitude

Educational Benefits

Student will learn how to work in a laboratory, how to prepare media and solutions, how to operate scientific equipment, he/she will learn to generate and record scientific data into a laboratory notebook.

This experience is invaluable should they want to pursue a role in global health sciences.

How to Apply

In the subject line please write Workstudy Job 2014-03

Apply at jobs@idri.org

Job Number: 75IDRI02 | Category: Science & Health | Program: | Reimbursement Rate: 75%