Program Schedule

8:30-9:15  Registration/Check in coffee and light refreshments available

9:15-9:25  Introduction to resources on campus
Beth Kalikoff, Director, Center for Teaching and Learning

9:30-11:00  Creating a Community of Colleagues: Why it makes sense and strategies for making it happen
Facilitators: Linda Martin-Morris, Biology
Ben Wiggins, Biology
Ricky Gutierrez, Biology

11:15-12:30  Developing Strategies for Addressing Challenges: Identify common challenges in teaching large classes, collaborative develop strategies to address challenges, and learn from each other
Facilitators: Karen Freisem, Center for Teaching and Learning
Theresa Ronquillo, Center for Teaching and Learning

12:30-1:30  Lunch and Conversation: We hope you’ll use this time to make connections with other large class instructors and share what you do in your classroom.
Lunch provided

1:30-2:45  How to engage my students: Examples of how to incorporate technology, group writing assignments and other methods to keep the lecture alive and encourage participation
Facilitator: Ben Marwick, Anthropology

3:00-4:15  Nuts & Bolts – How to Survive and Thrive: Tips on how to navigate the large class environment, where to go for assistance, and much more
Facilitator: David Domke, Communication