Scholarship Dinner/Lecture

“Post-Election Analysis: Should We Expect Changes in Foreign Policy in the New Administration?"

Dr. Joel S. Migdal, Robert F. Philip Professor of International Studies in the Jackson School of International Studies, will be the keynote speaker at the annual Scholarship Dinner Lecture on November 12 at the UW Club.

In our Centennial Year, it is fitting that we celebrate the awarding of more than 120 scholarships since 1958. Funding for these scholarships comes through generous donations from our members, Visiting Faculty Housing Service, and fundraisers.

Come meet this year’s recipients. The Melba Schmitz Scholarship is awarded to Alexis Echo Pong, who is studying Psychology. The Barbara Garlid Scholarship is awarded to Benjamin Triet Minh Nguyen, who is studying Electrical and Computer Engineering.

Dinner and a Movie
Romances of the American West
January and February

Our first film The Grey Fox tells the tale of real life stage coach robber Bill Miner. The story begins in the state of Washington in 1902 just as Bill is released after a long prison term and takes up the profession of train robbery. Richard Farnsworth brings a genuine charm to the role. His performance is one of the most delightful I can remember.

Destry Rides Again stars James Stewart and Marlene Dietrich. The movie starts out as pure corn ball, but because of Stewart’s performance as a disarmingly innocent but wise sheriff and Marlene’s role as a bad dame, the film takes on a classic form and becomes the model for many cowboy films to come.

In Memoriam
Alva Treadgold

We are deeply saddened with the passing of UWFA past president (1970) Alva Treadgold in August after a long and brilliant professional and personal life.

Alva, among her many other accomplishments, was the prime architect of the UW Retirement Association Faculty Retiree Pension Benefit as we know it today. In the 1970’s, she and members of the Faculty Wives Club successfully lobbied in Olympia for pensions for retirees and spouses.

She also was the co-founder and the first director of the UWRA. Alva was a "50 year" member of the UWFA and she is missed especially in this UWFA centennial year.

Elizabeth Gould and Peter Zika

In September 2007 Elizabeth Gould visited the temple complex at Angkor Wat, then followed the coast of Vietnam from south to north and ended her journey in the fairy book setting of Ha Long Bay near the Chinese border.

Join her as she visits World Heritage sites and Saigon markets, bicycles among rice paddies, dodges oxcarts, and samples some of the world's finest curries.

Elizabeth Gould’s presentation will be on November 19 at 7:30 pm. Trave-logues are free and do not require reservations. However, if you would like to have dinner before hand at 6:00, please call the UW Club, 206-543-0437, by Monday before the event.

Vera Wellner and Carmen Robbin welcome members, guests and newcomers at the Fall Reception.

Fall Reception
October 6, 2008

Congratulations to Barbara Scattergood and Carmen Robbin for organizing a wonderful Centennial Fall Reception. Everyone’s hard work contributed to making it a special event, but these two deserve special thanks. Thanks also go to Judy Gunderson and her efforts in recruiting new members. The floral arrangements by Wilma Morgan were lovely and added a seasonal touch.

Treasurer Barbara Archbold reported good news. Sales of raffle tickets exceeded expectations. Baskets that were assembled and donated by five very active interest groups-Scandinavian Cultural Exchange, Daytime Gourmet, Theater Buffs, Recorder Playing, and Book Discussion- yielded $546. A needlepoint pillow donated by Barbara Scattergood and quilts donated by Mary Albrecht generated another $110.

Many more people contributed to the success of the event than can be acknowledged here, but we thank all those who brought refreshments, helped set up and clean up, pour, and much more.

Dinner Lecture Series

Neil Low, a 40-year veteran of the Seattle Police Department, has published his first mystery novel. Thick as Thieves is an inside look at the dark side of law enforcement from a bygone time. He will talk about his book on December 10 at the UW Club.

Jessie Johanson very graciously has given a silver tankard pitcher that has been in her family to the UWFA for use at events. The pitcher made its inaugural appearance at the Fall Reception.

Thank you, Jessie.
