The name of the Faculty Wives Club was changed to the University of Washington Faculty Auxiliary in 1976, not 1957 as was printed in the Gala Program Booklet.

Dinner-And-A-Movie
Smoke Signals in January
The screenplay of Smoke Signals, the January selection, was written by Seattle’s own Sherman Alexie. Victor, a young Native American living on the reservation, sets off to pick up his father’s ashes and in the process finds himself. The film provides unflinching frankness about modern day Native Americans with good humor. January 13 at 7 p.m. Dinner at 6 p.m.

House and Courtesy
With the help of many and of the House and Courtesy Committee, events like our Gala Dinner and Fall Reception were a great success. If you would like to help with events this year, please contact Barbara Scattergood at 425-746-9646.

In Memoriam
Long time UWFA member Mary Brownley Hamilton passed away on June 8, 2009 at Park Shore Retirement Center. A gracious woman, she will be missed by her many friends.
Money, Money, Money:
Treasurer’s Report

In fiscal year 2008-09 Faculty Auxiliary received $4940 in dues and spent $5,677.54. It was a big year for us as we celebrated our 100th anniversary. To make the Gala a very special event while keeping the cost per person moderate, the Board agreed to spend $2,251.23 from the treasury on the Gala.

The other expenses for the year remained similar to past years:
- directory - $544
- fall reception - $625
- newsletter printing and mailing - $1505

We began the year with $6,127.24 in the General Account and ended with $6,414.70. The Scholarship Fund began the year with $20,283.35 and ended the year with $16,460.54. The Fund was larger than usual because of the donations by Century Circle members in the 2007-08 fiscal year. The Scholarship Fund received $2,935 in Century Circle donations, $1750 in donations received with dues, $4,000 from the VFHS, and $786 for the raffle at the Fall Reception. The cost for two full-tuition scholarships in 2008-09 was $13,604. The cost for this year’s scholarships will be almost $16,000. The interest rate on this money market account has fallen to practically nothing in the past year.

Faculty Auxiliary also has one CD valued at $10,734.

SAFARI! KENYA & TANZANIA
Photographs by Charles Sleicher

Photographer Charles Sleicher will present a show about his travel experiences through Samburu National Reserve, Lake Nakuru, the Masai Mara, the Serengeti, and Ngorongoro Center. His collection includes photographs of mammals and birds encountered during his travels in search of wildlife. If you’ve seen some of his African photos on display in the lower level of Meany Theater, you’ll know how good this show will be.

Charles Sleicher has been interested in natural history since early childhood and in photography since receiving a Brownie box camera at the age of 12. However, it was not until he retired from the University in 1991 that time allowed these two interests to flourish into his current passion of nature photography. Immediately after retirement he attended a workshop in photography by Art Wolfe, followed by workshops from John Shaw, Pat O’Hara, and Joe Englander.

Charles was winner in the wildlife division of Nature’s Best 1998 Annual Photography and his credits include the Sierra Club Wildlife Calendar, The National Geographic, and Audubon Calendar, Sunset Magazine, Washington Wildlife, and exhibits at the University of Washington. His interest in wildlife and scenic photography has caused him to travel extensively in the western U.S. plus Alaska, Florida, Vermont and the Antarctic region.

Travelogues are shown in the UW Club conference room. They are free and do not require reservations. However, if you would like to have dinner before hand at 6:00, please call the UW Club, 206-543-0437, by Monday before the event. The program starts at 7:15 (a new time).
