In the summer of 2010, the University of Washington Press will publish Harold Balazs to coincide with exhibitions of the artist’s work at the Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture in Spokane, the Art Museum of Washington State University in Pullman, and the Museum of Northwest Art in La Conner. The 160-page, hardbound book will contain more than 150 color reproductions of Harold Balazs’s works, including jewelry and enamel, liturgical commissions, prints, paintings, and sculpture. Essays about the artist’s life and work offer insight into his art and personality and review his lifetime of contribution to the cultural life of the Northwest, particularly his public art, work with children, and various collaborations.

A special edition of Harold Balazs, limited to 100 copies, with an original signed and numbered print, will be priced at $250. Order before July 1 and receive a 20% discount.
