Carl Hagenbeck's

Empire of Entertainments

Eric Ames

"Impeccably researched, this book analyzes Hagenbeck's innovations in creating live animal environments and performances and places them within a larger history of themed displays and virtual reality.

Beautifully written." —Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblett, author of Destination Culture: Tourism, Museums, and Display

Febris Erotica

Lovesickness in the Russian Literary

Imagination

Valeria Sobol

The author probes beyond the perception of "love and death" as a constant theme of 18th- and 19th-century Russian literature and examines the stereotype of the destructive power of romantic love and why Russian writers so willingly employ this cliché.

Heroines of Jiangyong

Chinese Narrative Ballads

in Women's Script

Translated by Wilt L. Idema

This is the first English translation of a set of verse narratives recorded in the unique "women's script" of rural Jiangyong County in Hunan. These retellings by women of Chinese folk literature provide a rare window into the everyday lives of rural daughters, wives, and mothers in an often harsh and unforgiving patriarchal society.
