ANNOUNCING A NEW BOOK SERIES FROM THE BILL HOLM CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF NORTHWEST COAST ART AND THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PRESS

Native Art of the Pacific Northwest
A Bill Holm Center Series

NATIVE ART OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST: A BILL HOLM CENTER SERIES publishes important new research on the Native art and culture of the greater Pacific Northwest. This series aims to foster appreciation of the dynamic cultural and artistic expressions of the indigenous peoples of the region.

Grounded in art history, the Bill Holm Center publication series welcomes a variety of approaches to the history of art and expression on the Northwest Coast. The series encompasses investigations of historical productions and contemporary manifestations of cultural expression as well as the important intersections between time, place, technique, and viewpoint. Contributors to the series consider cultural knowledge and the embodiment of that knowledge in material productions from multiple and sometimes conflicting cultural perspectives, expanding understanding of the role of art in the complicated history of the region.

SERIES EDITORS

ROBIN K. WRIGHT, director of the Bill Holm Center for the Study of Northwest Coast Art, is curator of Native American Art at the Burke Museum and professor of art history in the University of Washington’s School of Art. She is coeditor of the first book published in the Native Art of the Pacific Northwest: A Bill Holm Center Series, In the Spirit of the Ancestors: Contemporary Northwest Coast Art at the Burke Museum (Bill Holm Center for the Study of Northwest Coast Art, Burke Museum and University of Washington Press, 2013) and author of Northern Haida Master Carvers (University of Washington Press, 2001).

KATHRYN BUNN-MARCUSE, assistant director of the Bill Holm Center for the Study of Northwest Coast Art at the Burke Museum, is a visiting lecturer in Art History at the University of Washington, Seattle and coeditor, along with Wright, of In the Spirit of the Ancestors.
