

Catherine Bachy

PHILOSOPHY STATEMENT

Catherine Bachy is a leadership coach and clarity finder. She is known for her ability to capture and communicate insights and visual metaphors to help her clients find clarity so that they can map out the future that they desire. Thanks to her approach, her clients can see their work in new ways, and can move beyond the roadblocks that they face into the territory of solutions and achievements.

Catherine is gifted in creating safe space for important and sometimes difficult conversations to take place. She is skilled at noticing the deeper dynamics of what is going on and enabling others to respond in ways that produce more satisfying results.

Her key clients include leaders who want to help their teams become high performing while creating a positive work environment and managing conflict and stress along the way.
