Success of Bridge Funding Program: Return on Investment Over Time (12/06-11/14)

These two graphs show incoming submissions for HSD’s full IRBs to be relatively stable. However, submission types have not been weighted to show the different amount of work each submission type represents for researchers and for HSD staff. For example, a new study application that needs full IRB review requires significantly more work and time on the part of both HSD staff and researchers than does a closure request.

*These totals reflect the type of form initially submitted and do not reflect any subsequent transfers (e.g., full IRB initial application later determined to qualify for expedited review).

 For the purposes of this chart, this category includes Medical Records Review and Use of Non-Identifiable Biological Specimens/Data Review Determination.
