Nature of Organization

We are a small, non-profit, independent school (K-5th grade) located just south of Northgate and east of Greenlake, in the Maple Leaf neighborhood, at 90th and Roosevelt.

Duties and Responsibilities

Have fun helping to supervise students in Kindergarten through 5th grade in after-school activities such as art, board games, drama, puzzles, cooking, sports, and more. Bring your interests and talents, help develop projects and activities, and learn to manage and excite students. Under supervision of a teacher, help provide a rich and engaging after-school program while ensuring the safety and well-being of each student. Monday - Friday: ~3:00 - ~5:30. We're flexible with hours and days.

Minimum Qualifications

Self-motivating, reliable, spirited, creative, engaging, fun-loving. Preference on candidates who are interested in careers involving working with children.

Educational Benefits

Obtain first-hand knowledge on how to manage students, deal with conflict, remain engaging, be creative - what any successful needs to do well! Join our fun-loving and talented faculty in providing unique learning experiences.

How to Apply

Send resume attached to an email, with a brief explanation/recap within the body of the email.
