Nature of Organization

The Law Library serves the School of Law faculty, students, staff, and visiting scholars, as well as other members of the university community, the bar, and the general public.

Duties and Responsibilities

There are two primary tasks you would be performing. Each requires a high degree of concentration combined with attention to detail and a great deal of repetition. The ability to maintain your focus for prolonged periods of time is the key to succeeding in this job.

Processing various library materials, property stamping, printing and applying spine labels, inserting security strips, etc.

Filing updated loose leaf pages in binders and removing superseded pages.

Minimum Qualifications

Available to schedule work shifts between 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. 2 hour minimum shifts are required, at least initially. All previous volunteer or work experience will be considered, but those demonstrating strong accuracy skills will be especially valued.

Educational Benefits

Exposure to various legal materials while learning law-related nomenclature and unique library-centric computer programs.
